Introduction to Miro

Finding your way around Miro

2. Select 'list' view

3. Click on the frame you want to see

1. Show table of contents

4. Or use the map view for navigation
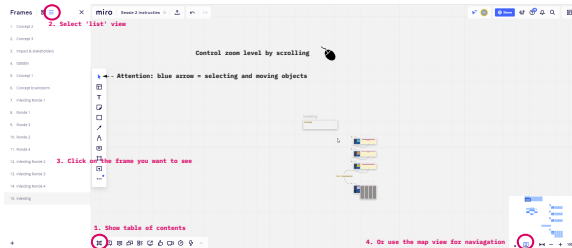

The most important action

1. Create a post-it from existing

Blue arrow to select

Click post-it

Use "Shift" to copy
Use "Shift+V" to paste

Select the newly created post-it and drag it to the correct place

(can also be done through right-clicking)

2. New post-it using shortcut

Shortcut key "N"

Choose your desired post-it colour and click on a location where you want to create the new post-it

(can also be done without choosing a colour)

3. New post-it through menu

Click the post-it icon in the left hand menu

Choose your desired post-it colour and click on a location where you want to create the new post-it

(can also be done without choosing a colour)

Writing on a post-it

Click a post-it 3 times

Lorem ips

Write down your contribution